Vol. 6 Foreign Testimony

[Index pg. a]

Almost all the claims on Molokai are without counter claims. There are very few counter claimants to any piece of land there. I have abbreviated some terms as for inst. Kon= Konolaiki; Ah.= Ahupuaa; Wcourse= Watercourse. Molokai lies almost parallel therefore they universally use the word Manae for towards the Windward, Malalo for toward the Leeward, which I have abbreviated here. (v. 6/b)

Present in said assembly Kenaina, Kepena and others.

A counter claim was sent in to Land Commission for the Fishpond of Pukoa during the time land claims were collected and counter claim was sent in by C.B. Andrews by direction of Wm. Richards, Minister of Public Instruction and Fishpond was affirmed to have been built by all of the people of Molokai, is the fruit of their labors and toil in former days, when they were drafted and commanded by Lunas and chiefs from every point of Molokai and brought to that work, and they further affirm that said pond not having been built by the private labor of any one chief with his Poalima but as aforesaid by all the people of Molokai, it ought not by right of justice to be [?] owned by any one chief or his or her favorite, much less, that the fruit of their toil and sweat should belong to one who has oppressed the people in his living as Luna Auhau on Molokai as Ilae has oppressed them, and enriched himself from the office he held over them. There is a large amount of property on Molokai who consisting of Taro patches and Fishponds they were built with immense labor by all the people unitedly which now is decided to belong to the Peahao or school property and for years ever since Ilae claimed and used so [?] the proceeds of such lands and ponds have gone to the Paahao. It was the opinion of Wm. Richards and also of the present Minister of Public Instruction that said Fishpond of Pukoa and its proceeds rightfully in justice belongs to said Paahao or school property. This statement entered and subscribed by C.B. Andrews.

Lokameikai sworn, and he helped to build the wall of Fishpond of Pukoa under Naea Luna Aukau about the year 1823.
